

Crikecrak

Piccololorso, his baby sister and fear

by and with Roberto Frabetti directed by Valeria Frabetti set design by Vanni Braga

English

Technical requirements

Minimum space required: width 6m - depth 6m
The show can be performed in schools

1 - 4 years

After Tiketak and Cikeciak, here's a new story about Piccololorso and his baby sister.

Crikecrak, a nut cracks. Crikecrak, a branch in the woods breaks... Because this story is about nuts and woods, and once again, it begins with a cake and a birthday party. No, actually two birthday parties: Mammalorsa's and Babbolorso's.

«Where can we find the nuts and chestnuts for the cake?» asks Piccolalorsa.

«In the woods!». «But I am afraid to go into the woods, it's so dark!». «We'll go together! And don't worry, everybody's afraid of something...».

So, nuts and chestnuts are replaced by the true protagonist of the story: fear. The woods are frightening, darkness is frightening... each of us has their own fear.

