The boat and the moon

by Roberto Frabetti and Bruno Cappagli
directed by Bruno Cappagli and Valeria Frabetti
with Carlotta Zini
originals songs by Riccardo Tesi

“There was a boat, sailing at sea,
but on the moon it wanted to be...”
It is the tale of a boat and its pipe dream.
It dances with a fish, talks to the stars,
plays with a pelican, listens to a whale...
It asks for help and directions.
It wants to know how to do it.
How do you leave the sea and sail to the moon?
But the moon is so far away and the boat can't fly.
But it tries, and tries, and tries hard again.
In the end, the moon will leave the skies
to take a bath in the sea.

Simple words come along with the actors' action,
looking for a unity of image made of lights sounds and movements.
